

Abstract

Title of the thesis: Blind football

Objectives: The objective of this bachelor's thesis is to apprise the public with sport which is as a phenomenon as football adapted to the possibilities of athletes with visual impairments. It is a sport that is not very popular in any territory of ours, just like all other sports for handicapped people. I would like to familiarize people, so that sports activity can come closer, but also to sports enthusiasts who are interested in basic information about this sports game.

Method: The bachelor's thesis is made by the method of review, on the basis of summary from theoretical knowledge and specialized information.

Results: Writing rules and all available information that is important to know to practice this sport.

Key words: football, sport, visual disability, rules